God verses

The word God is found in the KJV 4,458 times in 3,878 verses. Here we are looking 1,364 verses of what could be referred to as titles or Name(s) for the God of the Bible. To some that follow the Holy Name, these would be pagan references, but that is not where we are going with this. We are using what the King James Bible is showing. What is the most important observation of these verses is to take notice that God is not only One, but One Spirit being. A Spirit being that is not divisible by any number.

Foreword

This book was developed as a result of diligent word study and is intended to be an aid to the honest truth seeking Christian that wants to earnestly know what the Bible has to say in regards to the identity of who is God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. It doesn't completely come out and tell you as much, but puts the pieces there for you to examine a few thousand Scriptures. It is the prayer and wishes of the Publisher that the reader sees what is in the Bible, as well as what is not in the Bible.

That is, what does the Bible have to say without man's creeds, traditions or human construction. While this might not be an absolute complete end-all study, it's nearly thousand hours or so will catapult the seeker of truth far forward and faster than what might have discouraged him or her from even trying or beginning.

Matthew 15:9 - But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

It is quite common today to meld and intertwine the word Godhead with the word Trinity. But one has absolutely nothing to do with the other. In the early part of this book, a close examination of the word Godhead can be found along with all the various translations out there. One thing you will notice. They are all in agreement.

The word trinity means simply three. But the problem is, it has been applied to Christianity along with man made doctrines. Now it has grown heads and in the dark and middle ages, people were put to death for being opposed to this doctrine. Rome enforced their method of belief and worship onto the common people. And bloodshed followed in the name of Jesus Christ. The problem is, it was not the Jesus Christ of the Bible.

For those that have been corrupted by theology school, the publisher welcomes you with fresh eyes and vision to be obtained through the examination of this book.

Special thanks to Daniel M., and Ener C. for their contributions.

Point to Ponder

The greatest reason why the people of God are now found in this state of spiritual blindness is that they will not receive correction. Many have despised the reproofs and warnings given them. The True Witness condemns the lukewarm condition of the people of God, which gives Satan great power over them in this waiting, watching time. The selfish, the proud, and the lovers of sin are ever assailed with doubts. Satan has ability to suggest doubts and to devise objections to the pointed testimony that God sends, and many think it a virtue, a mark of intelligence in them, to be unbelieving and to question and quibble. Those who desire to doubt will have plenty of room. God does not propose to remove all occasion for unbelief. He gives evidence, which must be carefully investigated with a humble mind and a teachable spirit, and all should decide from the weight of evidence.

What greater deception can come upon human minds than a confidence that they are right when they are all wrong! The message of the True Witness finds the people of God in a sad deception, yet honest in that deception. They know not that their condition is deplorable in the sight of God. While those addressed are flattering themselves that they are in an exalted spiritual condition, the message of the True Witness breaks their security by the startling denunciation of their true condition of spiritual blindness, poverty, and wretchedness. The testimony, so cutting and severe, cannot be a mistake, for it is the True Witness who speaks, and His testimony must be correct.

Religious teachers read the Bible in the light of their own understanding and traditions; and the people do not search the Scriptures for themselves, and judge for themselves as to what is truth; but they yield up their judgment, and commit their souls to their leaders. This is a dangerous and decripid condition.

The truths most plainly revealed in the Bible have been involved in doubt and darkness by learned men, who, with a pretense of great wisdom, teach that the Scriptures have a mystical, a secret, spiritual meaning not apparent in the language employed. These men are false teachers. It was to such a class that Jesus declared, "Ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God." [Mark 12:24.] The language of the Bible should be explained according to its obvious meaning unless a symbol or figure is employed. Christ has given the promise, "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine." [John 7:17.] If men would but take the Bible as it reads, if there were no false teachers to mislead and confuse their minds, a work would be accomplished that would make angels glad, and that would bring into the fold of Christ thousands upon thousands who are now wandering in error.

What Do the Creeds Say?

[Your cross reference might be slightly different]

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic* Church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

* catholic means "universal" and is not a reference to the Roman Catholic Church.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate; He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again with glory to judge the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified; who spake by the Prophets. And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Athanasian Creed

Whosoever will be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the catholic faith. Which faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the catholic faith is this, that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity; Neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the Substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost is all one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal. Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost. The Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Ghost uncreated. The Father incomprehensible, the Son incomprehensible, and the Holy Ghost incomprehensible. The Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Ghost eternal. And yet they are not three Eternals, but one Eternal. As there are not three Uncreated nor three Incomprehensibles, but one Uncreated and one Incomprehensible. So likewise the Father is almighty, the Son almighty, and the Holy Ghost almighty. And yet they are not three Almighty, but one Almighty. So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God. And yet they are not three Gods, but one God. So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Ghost Lord. And yet not three Lords, but one Lord. For like as we are compelled by the Christian verity to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord, So are we forbidden by the catholic religion to say, There be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone; not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghost is of the Father and of the Son: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding. So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts. And in this Trinity none is before or after other; none is greater or less than another; But the whole three Persons are coeternal together, and coequal: so that in all things, as is aforesaid, the Unity in Trinity and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshiped. He, therefore, that will be saved must thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting salvation that he also believe faithfully the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. For the right faith is, that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man; God of the Substance of the Father, begotten before the worlds; and Man of the substance of His mother, born in the world; Perfect God and perfect Man, of a reasonable soul and human flesh subsisting. Equal to the Father as touching His Godhead, and inferior to the Father as touching His manhood; Who, although He be God and Man, yet He is not two, but one Christ: One, not by conversion of the Godhead into flesh, but by taking the manhood into God; One altogether; not by confusion of Substance, but by unity of Person. For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one man, so God and Man is one Christ; Who suffered for our salvation; descended into hell, rose again the third day from the dead; He ascended into heaven; He sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty; from whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies, and shall give an account of their own works. And they that have done good shall go into life everlasting; and they that have done evil, into everlasting fire.

This is the catholic faith; which except a man believe faithfully and firmly, he cannot be saved.

Now for some short summary statements from various churches. We are not looking to pick on anyone here, but we must show what is stated as a large scale belief system.

Westminster Confession of Faith. A.D. 1647

Of God, and the Holy Trinity.

I. There is but one only living and true God, who is infinite in being and perfection, a most pure spirit, invisible, without body, parts, or passions, immutable, immense, eternal, incomprehensible, almighty, most wise, most holy, most free, most absolute, working all things according to the counsel of his own immutable and most righteous will, for his own glory; most loving, gracious, merciful, longsuffering, abundant in goodness and truth, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin; the rewarder of them that diligently seek him; and withal most just and terrible in his judgments; hating all sin, and who will by no means clear the guilty.

III. In the Unity of the Godhead there be three persons, of one substance, power and eternity: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost. The Father is of none, neither begotten nor proceeding; the Son is eternally begotten of the Father; the Holy Ghost eternally proceeding from the Father and the Son.

From the Orthodox Creed, General Baptists, 1679 III. Article of the Holy Trinity.

IN this divine, and infinite being, or Unity of the Godhead, there are three Persons, or Subsistences,¹⁸ the Father,¹⁹ the Word, or Son,²⁰ and the Holy Spirit,²¹ of one Substance,²² Power,²³ Eternity,²⁴ and Will;²⁵ each having the whole Divine Essence, yet the Essence undivided.²⁶ The Father is of none, neither Begotten nor Proceeding; the Son is Eternally Begotten of the Father; the Holy Ghost is of the Father, and the Son, proceeding.²⁷ All Infinite, without Beginning, therefore but one God, who is Indivisible, and not to be divided in Nature, or Being, but distinguished by several Properties and Personal Relations; and we worship and adore a Trinity in Unity; and a Unity in Trinity, three Persons, and but one God; which Doctrine of the Trinity, is the foundation of all our Communion with God,²⁸ and comfortable Dependence on him.

Methodist Articles of Religion
Adopted in 1784, from the 39 Articles of the Church of England.

Article I - Of Faith in the Holy Trinity

There is but one living and true God, everlasting, without body or parts, of infinite power, wisdom, and good; the maker and preserver of all things, both visible and invisible. And in unity of this Godhead there are three persons, of one substance, power, and eternity—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

Article II - Of the Word, or Son of God, Who Was Made Very Man The Son, who is the Word of the Father, the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, took man's nature in the womb of the blessed Virgin; so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say, the Godhead and Manhood, were joined together in one person, never to be divided; whereof is one Christ, very God and very Man, who truly suffered, was crucified, dead, and buried, to reconcile us to His Father, and to be a sacrifice, not only for original guilt, but also for actual sins of men.

Article IV - Of the Holy Ghost

The Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty, and glory with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.

[Question to the reader: Does your spirit make you into a second person? Then how can the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God be made into a different god from the Father? Church doctrines are called “DOGMA” for a reason.]

Assemblies of God USA - From their Statement of 16 Fundamental Truths:

2. There is only one true God who exists as a Trinity.
3. Jesus Christ is the Son of God and, as the second person of the Trinity, is God.

Southern Baptist Church, USA

God: There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being. A.) God the Father. B.) God the Son. Christ is the eternal Son of God.... C.) God the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God.

[Question to the reader: If Christ is the Son of God, and the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, then how or why could you use non-Biblical terms of God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. For now you have three gods in total.]

Fundamental Beliefs of Seventh-Day Adventists 1981.

2. The Trinity.

There is one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, a unity of three co-eternal Persons.

3. The Father.

God the Eternal Father is the Creator, Source, Sustainer, and Sovereign of all creation.

4. The Son.

God the eternal Son became incarnate in Jesus Christ. Through Him all things were created, the character of God is revealed, the salvation of humanity is accomplished, and the world is judged. Forever truly God, He became also truly man, Jesus the Christ.

5. The Holy Spirit.

God the eternal Spirit was active with the Father and the Son in Creation, incarnation, and redemption. He inspired the writers of Scripture.

13. Unity in the Body of Christ.

This unity has its source in the oneness of the triune God, who has adopted us as His children.

The Catholic Catcheism

Section Two, The Profession of Christian Faith

II. The Revelation of God as Trinity

232 Christians are baptized "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit⁵³ Before receiving the sacrament, they respond to a three-part question when asked to confess the Father, the Son and the Spirit: "I do." "The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity."⁵⁴

233 Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names,⁵⁵ for there is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

234 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the truths of faith".⁵⁶The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men "and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin".⁵⁷

II. The Revelation of God as Trinity – The Father and the Son revealed by the Spirit

244 The eternal origin of the Holy Spirit is revealed in his mission in time. The Spirit is sent to the apostles and to the Church both by the Father in the name of the Son, and by the Son in person, once he had returned to the Father.⁶⁹ The sending of the person of the Spirit after Jesus' glorification⁷⁰reveals in its fullness the mystery of the Holy Trinity.

245 The apostolic faith concerning the Spirit was confessed by the second ecumenical council at Constantinople (381): "We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father."⁷¹ By this confession, the Church recognizes the Father as "the source and origin of the whole divinity".⁷² But the eternal origin of the Spirit is not unconnected with the Son's origin: "The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, is God, one and equal with the Father and the Son, of the same substance and also of the same nature. . . . Yet he is not called the Spirit of the Father alone, . . . but the Spirit of both the Father and the Son."⁷³ The Creed of the Church from the Council of Constantinople confesses: "With the Father and the Son, he is worshipped and glorified."⁷⁴

III. The Holy Trinity in the Teaching of the Faith

The Formulation of the Trinitarian dogma

251 In order to articulate the dogma of the Trinity, the Church had to develop her own terminology with the help of certain notions of philosophical origin: "substance", "person" or "hypostasis", "relation" and so on. In doing this, she did not submit the faith to human wisdom, but gave a new and unprecedented meaning to these terms, which from then on would be used to signify an ineffable mystery, "infinitely beyond all that we can humanly understand".⁸²

252 The Church uses (I) the term "substance" (rendered also at times by "essence" or "nature") to designate the divine being in its unity, (II) the term "person" or "hypostasis" to designate the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in the real distinction among them, and (III) the term "relation" to designate the fact that their distinction lies in the relationship of each to the others.

The dogma of the Holy Trinity

253 The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons, the "consubstantial Trinity".⁸³ The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: "The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e. by nature one God."⁸⁴ In the words of the Fourth Lateran Council (1215), "Each of the persons is that supreme reality, viz., the divine substance, essence or nature."⁸⁵

254 The divine persons are really distinct from one another. "God is one but not solitary."⁸⁶ "Father", "Son", "Holy Spirit" are not simply names designating modalities of the divine being, for they are really distinct from one another: "He is not the Father who is the Son, nor is the Son he who is the Father, nor is the Holy Spirit he who is the Father or the Son."⁸⁷ They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: "It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds."⁸⁸ The divine Unity is Triune.

258 The whole divine economy is the common work of the three divine persons. For as the Trinity has only one and the same nature, so too does it have only one and the same operation: "The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are not three principles of creation but one principle."⁹⁷ However, each divine person performs the common work according to his unique personal property. Thus the Church confesses, following the New Testament, "one God and Father from whom all things are, and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom all things are, and one Holy Spirit in whom all things are".⁹⁸ It is above all the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit that show forth the properties of the divine persons.

IN BRIEF

261 The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and of Christian life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

262 The Incarnation of God's Son reveals that God is the eternal Father and that the Son is consubstantial with the Father, which means that, in the Father and with the Father the Son is one and the same God.

263 The mission of the Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in the name of the Son (Jn 14:26) and by the Son "from the Father" (Jn 15:26), reveals that, with them, the Spirit is one and the same God. "With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified" (Nicene Creed).

264 "The Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father as the first principle and, by the eternal gift of this to the Son, from the communion of both the Father and the Son" (St. Augustine, De Trin. 15, 26, 47: PL 42, 1095).

265 By the grace of Baptism "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light (cf. Paul VI, CPG § 9).

266 "Now this is the Catholic faith: We worship one God in the Trinity and the Trinity in unity, without either confusing the persons or dividing the substance; for the person of the Father is one, the Son's is another, the Holy Spirit's another; but the Godhead of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is one, their glory equal, their majesty coeternal" (Athanasian Creed: DS 75; ND 16).

267 Inseparable in what they are, the divine persons are also inseparable in what they do. But within the single divine operation each shows forth what is proper to him in the Trinity, especially in the divine missions of the Son's Incarnation and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Handbook for Today's Catholic

3. One God, Three Divine Persons

The Catholic Church teaches that the fathomless mystery we call God has revealed himself to humankind as a Trinity of Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Three Persons, One God

The mystery of the Trinity is the central doctrine of Catholic Faith. Upon it are based all the other teachings of the Church. In the New Testament there is frequent mention of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. A careful reading of these scriptural passages leads to one unmistakable conclusion: each of these Persons is presented as having qualities that can belong only to God. But if there is only one God, how can this be?

The Church studied this mystery with great care and, after four centuries of clarification, decided to state the doctrine in this way: in the unity of the Godhead there are three Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—truly distinct one from another. Thus, in the words of the Athanasian Creed: "The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three gods but one God."

Godhead verses

Could we be over thinking this topic and these verses?

The word, “Godhead” was only mentioned three times by the apostle Paul in the Scriptures and in this study we will take a look at those three instances and learn how the apostle used the word in each case.

The first was recorded in:

1) Acts 17:29 “Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.”

The context that surrounds this verse was the objective of Paul to reveal the true God to the people in Athens which were wholly given up on idolatry (vs. 16-28), and he specifically contrasted their false image of the “UNKNOWN GOD” as inscribed on the altar (v23) by speaking against their ideology that God could be known through the graven works of their imagination of God.

The apostle declared to them, “...Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you” (v23). But who was this God that Paul desired to reveal to them? When he said, “HIM,” did he wish it to be understood as “EloHIM” in the plurality of divine persons that make up the Godhead? Or was “HIM” a single divine person in this context? It was a single Divine being and Paul confirms this in verse 24. “God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.”

Who is this God that made the worlds and is Lord of heaven and earth? Jesus confirms this in two particular verses.

Matthew 11:25 – At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.”

Luke 10:21 – “In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou has hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.”

This is the same God that is revealed in Revelation 14:7 when it says to “Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.” These verses are void of the identity of such words as “Gods,” “them,” “their.” They are VERY singular as in One, with no plurality.

Paul declared the “HIM” as a single person (God, as in the Father) and He will one day judge the world by “...that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.” (v31) This man who he hath ordained is none other than Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Peter testified that God raised Jesus from the dead whom He ordained to judge the living and the dead (Acts 10:40-42). So therefore Paul in this context used the word Godhead to reveal God as the One that raised Jesus from the dead, which was specifically the Father (Galatians 1:1) and not a plurality of divine persons.

The second time Paul mentioned Godhead was in his letter to the believers in Rome.

2) Romans 1:20 “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.” This usage of eternal power and Godhead is broken down and explained in the majority of other translations as eternal power and divine nature.

From the beginning of this chapter in Romans 1 you will quickly notice that the apostle distinctly referred to the Father as “God” and to Jesus as the “Son of God” or “Lord”, therefore in context, the “HIM” again refers to the Father. No one else, and nothing else. Read the chapter for yourself, don’t listen to what the pastor says, or any other leader. Prove all things!

Many times throughout Paul’s writings we have a greeting or salutation like the one in Romans 1:7 – “To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.” Does this verse say that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit? No. You will not find a statement like that in the Bible anywhere, in any translation. And you won’t find the Bible stating that the Godhead comprises of a Father, Son and Holy Spirit either. People have given up their understanding and reasoning over to the seminary graduates.

God has a chosen people that know about God because he has made it plain to them. They have a deep desire to search the Scriptures, praying for discernment and are honest in their seeking Him.

(v19) “Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.” (v20) “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, *even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:” (eternal power and divine nature)

(v21) “Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.” (v22) “Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,” (v23) “And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.” (v24) “Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:” (v25) “Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.”

God has allowed those that want to follow fables and not retain the real one true God in their knowledge, over to vile affections, lust, a reprobate mind, unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, murder, deceit and all kinds of lawlessness as the rest of Romans 1 says. The third time Paul mentioned Godhead was in his letter to the Colossians.

3) Colossians 2:9 “For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.”

In this text, the “HIM” referred to Jesus, and “IN HIM” dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead. This is God’s Divine nature that dwells in bodily form, in Christ. Leading up to verse 9 are some important points that cannot be missed as you can come to the (v2) “full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ.” (v3) “In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” (v4) And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.” (v6) “As ye have therefore received Jesus Christ the Lord, so walk ye in him:” (v8) Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.” (v9) For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.” (v10) And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power.” (v11) “In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ.” (v12) “Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.”

According to Paul, the Godhead was the Father and His eternal power, which is his divine nature. That is what is dwelling in Christ!

2 Corinthians 5:19 - “To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself...”

Colossians 1:19 - “For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell.”
(him = Christ)

Ephesians 3:19 – “And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Within these Scriptures, the use of the word Godhead by the apostle Paul always referred to the Father and His eternal power, which pleased Him to see it dwelling in His Son. But, is the Father physically dwelling in His Son, or is it by His Spirit that He dwells in his Son?

John 3:34 - “...for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.”
And since it was given to Jesus not by measure, then it must be in its fullness.

In conclusion, the usage of the word Godhead by Paul never alluded to a plurality of persons that make up one God, but always to a single divine Person, namely the Father. And this was his belief and the belief of the other disciples.

Paul said, "But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him." 1 Corinthians 8:6

So at this point you can see what is missing from the only three verses in the Bible with the word Godhead. And that is the definition of persons. Also not found is the mention of a membership or group of three. The Holy Spirit is missing. Why? Let the scriptures speak to you without any preconceived notions. Let the scriptures speak to you and not what you have been told to regurgitate.

One thing is certain, the word Godhead has nothing to do with a trinity or trinity explanation, or a three being, three person doctrine of any kind.

Colossians 2:8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ."

From the study of the three main Scriptures using the word Godhead, we can see what the Bible is telling us, and we can see what the Bible is not telling us. Now it is up to you to reconcile your thinking to the Bible, instead of trying to reconcile the Bible to your thinking.

Now let's look at the words, "Person" and "Persons" in the Bible.

We will key in on only those verses that even remotely have something to do with God, Christ or the Holy Spirit.

"Person" verses

56 times in 54 verses, yet only three have any mention of Christ or the Father.
No connection or mention to the Holy Spirit.

1. 2 Corinthians 2:10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;
2. Hebrews 1:3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
3. Job 13:8 Will ye accept his person? Will ye contend for God?

"Persons" verses

56 times in 54 verses, yet only four have any mention of Christ or the Father.
No connection or mention of the Holy Spirit.

1. Acts 10:34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons.
2. Romans 2:11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
3. Ephesians 6:9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
4. James 2:1, 9 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect to persons. v9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

The point is, you can see that the Bible does not tell you that there are "persons" in the Godhead. It is time for us to leave the errors behind and go forth in truth.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Combined reference verses

We will take a closer look at the following verses and break them down with better clarity and understanding on the pages to follow. Along with this are some other key, vital topics that are very related to understanding the greater context of what is taking place.

Matthew 28:19 - Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

1 John 5:7-8 - For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. v8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

2 Corinthians 13:14 - The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. {Bible.cc comment: The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.}

Matthew 3:16-17 - And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: v17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Another greatly misconstrued Scripture:

Acts 5:3-4 — “But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? v4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why have you conceived this thing in thine heart? you have not lied unto men, but unto God.”

At first glance, what is missing from these verses?

The wording or titles of God the Spirit, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit.

Why is this important? For starters, the Bible counsels us not to add to it.

Proverbs 30:5-6 – “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. v6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

There are deep implications and explanations for the above verses.

Matthew 28:19

Jesus gives a few hints in his testimony that is recorded in Matthew 28.

In verse 18 he says, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

In verse 20 he says, "I have commanded you" and "I am with you always".

These statements have been cropped short so you can see Jesus' message more clearly.

Please open your Bible (KJV) and read them in their entirety. Christ has "Authority" here.

Now lets read Acts 4:12 - "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, where by we must be saved."

Read Acts 4:7 - "And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?"

You can see the parallel to the word "power" and "name". And when we speak of name in relation to God, name also means character. Jesus has the power, the name, and character of His Father. So in all of these, it is all about Jesus.

In John 5:43, Jesus is speaking and says, "I am come in my Father's name....."

John 5:22 - "For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son." Only two beings here, the Father and the Son.

Keep in mind, all the writers of the New Testament are either Hebrew or Jews with only Luke being Greek. But they were all non-Trinitarians because the Trinity doctrine was not formulated until the 300's AD (fourth century).

Now lets see how Mark recorded this in Mark 16:15-17. "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name, shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues."

Now please review the following verses:

Acts 2:38 - "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Acts 8:12 - "But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women."

Acts 8:16 - "For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Acts 10:48 - "And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days."

Acts 19:5 - "When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Acts 22:16 - "And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

Romans 6:3 - "Know you not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?"

Galatians 3:27 - "For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ."

There is no record in the Bible of anyone baptizing in three separate names (or titles) of three individual persons. The disciples ALWAYS baptized in the name of Jesus, or of Christ. WHY? Could they have not understood the command of Jesus in Matthew 28:19, "baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" ?

Or was that not the original command, and they obeyed Jesus baptizing them only in His NAME?

Keep in mind, He said "name", not "names". It was singular, not plural. If you re-read the entire chapter of Matthew 28, it is all about Jesus. So lets look at verses 18-20 with their original meaning or purpose.

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in MY NAME. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

In 2 Corinthians 5:18-19, God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself. So with that in mind, baptizing in the name of the Father and Son is okay. And in John 14, Jesus tells us in third person language that He is the Comforter as he comes to His people in spirit form. So in a way, baptizing also in the name of the Holy Spirit could be considered okay. But not if your ideology is all messed up as the general concensus of today thinking they are supporing a "trinity doctrine."

However, people don't have a true understanding, so their thinking is faulty on this. Today the real remnant baptize in the name of Jesus. And as a result, they receive the Holy Spirit.

Refer to Mark 16:12 where Jesus appeared in another form. After his ascension to heaven, Jesus was glorified and would return to His disciples as the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Christ.

“After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.”

Keep in mind, 2 Corinthians 3:17 – “Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.”

1 Corinthians 15:45, 47 – “And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. v47 he first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

In My Name – Jesus Christ

Did Jesus use the phrase "in my name" on other occasions besides Matthew 28:19? Yes!

Matthew 18:5 - “And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.”

Matthew 18:20 - “For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

Matthew 24:5 - “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.”

Mark 9:37 – “Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.”

Mark 9:39 – “But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.”

Mark 9:41 – “For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.”

Mark 13:6 - “For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.”

Mark 16:17 – “And these signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;”

Luke 9:48 - “And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.”

Luke 21:8 - “And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.”

John 14:13 – “And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.”

John 14:14 – “If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.”

John 14:26 – “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.”

John 15:16 – “Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.”

John 16:23 – “And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

John 16:24 – “Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.”

John 16:26 – “At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:”

Acts 4:12 – “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

Who is that referring to? In Jesus' Name only.

John 14 – The Comforter

Jesus would leave the disciples in how they knew him, in bodily form. And he would return to them in spiritual form. They didn't ask who was coming when he told them that he will come to them as "another comforter," but they wondered "how." See verse 22.

"v1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. v2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. v3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there v5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? v6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. v7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. v8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. v9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? v10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. v11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. v12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. v13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. v14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. v15 If ye love me, keep my commandments. v16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; v17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. v18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. v19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. v20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. v21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. v22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? v23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. v24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. v25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. v26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. v27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. v28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. v29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. v30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. v31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.”

In the chapter of John 14 are hidden many clues from Jesus’ own words. But when people are told by their leaders one particular verse, ignoring the context and storyline of Jesus’ testimony all throughout the book of John, chapters 14, 15, 16 and 17, their ability to absorb anything else becomes a mute point.

We are referring to John 14:16 – “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;”

Lets take a look at this word, “Comforter” in the Strong’s Concordance (G3875).

Comforter = Paraklétos: called to one's aid

Original Word: παράκλητος, ου, ό

Part of Speech: Noun, Masculine

Transliteration: paraklétos

Phonetic Spelling: (par-ak'-lay-tos)

Definition: called to one's aid

Usage: (a) an advocate, intercessor, (b) a consoler, comforter, helper, (c) Paraclete.

This word Comforter shows up five times in the New Testament with the main Greek word of “paraklétos.” Including John 14:16, it is used as “Comforter” four times, and then it is used as “Advocate” once. That last usage is found in 1 John 2:1 as it spells it out without the usage of Jesus speaking in parables, that this Comforter aka Advocate is Jesus Christ! And we know Christ was speaking in parables (third person language actually) because it trips up so many people, AND he confirms it in John 16:25.

John 14:26 - But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

John 15:26 - But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

John 16:7 - Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

1 John 2:1 - My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

Towards the end of John 16, we see a confirmation of what was taking place by Jesus speaking in first person and switching to third person language. It can be awfully difficult for many to understand. These two verses confirm the mere mention of Jesus speaking to them in proverbs (parables). And it is confirmed back to him by his disciples.

Proverb – Parable speaking

John 16:25 – “These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.”

John 16:29 – “His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.”

Why did Jesus speak in parables? Because His message was not meant to be understood by just anyone and everyone. And that still holds for today. How many clues did Jesus give to us, as to who was the Comforter that would come to the disciples? MANY! There are many and outweigh any mystery ghost being taught in the churches today. Do whatever you have to, to reconcile your mind to the Bible instead of the Bible to your mind (thinking).

Clues to John 14

- 1) v3 He said that he will come again and receive you unto “myself”. (himself)
- 2) v6 Jesus is the channel, the way to the Father. There is nothing or no one else. He is our go between, our mediator. Jesus says that he is the way, THE TRUTH, and the life.
- 3) v7-9 Because Christ is Begotten of the Father before the creation of the world, he has a special identity. He has the same nature and character of the Father. He came out from God and was sent from God. He is the express image of the Father. So in knowing the Son of God, you know God in heaven.
- 4) v10-11 The Father’s Spirit dwells in Christ, the Spirit of God also referred to as the Holy Spirit. That is how the Father communicates to His Son and tells Him what and how to speak.
- 5) v12 This verse ends with a hint that Jesus is leaving them soon.
- 6) v13-14 Jesus tells them to pray, to ask in His name. Not someone else. And he will do it. By doing so, the Father will be glorified in the Son.
- 7) v15 Are we to be obedient in the instruction from Jesus? If you love me, keep my commandments. Remember the Father is speaking to us through His Son.
- 8) v16 Another Comforter—a substitute of Christ being in their presence in physical, earthly human form—will abide (be with) with you for ever.
- 9) v17 He says the Spirit of Truth the world cannot receive because they don't see him or know him. But the Spirit of Truth THEY know (the disciples), because he currently was dwelling with them and will be IN THEM. Jesus said in verse 6 that he is the way, the “truth”, and the life. What would be the Spirit of truth if he is “the truth”? It would be His spirit, the Spirit of Christ also referred to here as the Spirit of truth.

Spirit of truth – world can’t receive because it doesn’t know him or see him.

Spirit of truth – the disciples know him and the Spirit of truth dwells with them.

Who was dwelling with them at that moment? Christ in the flesh (bodily form)

Spirit of truth – now it will be in them (the disciples)

Spirit + Christ = Spirit of Christ

Christ in His Spirit is the Spirit of Truth

10) v18 Then he confirms this by saying, I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you. Does that say he is sending a friend? Someone else? NO, it is Jesus speaking about HIMSELF in direct first person language. Something he doesn't do very much. No proverb or parable speaking in third person language here.

11) v19 Jesus tells them that the world is not going to see him any more. But they will still see Him because He lives.

12) v20 He states that He is in the Father, they are in him, and Jesus is in them. Working in union or unity, one in purpose and character. A real trinity. The union of a true Christian, his creator = God the Father, and Jesus Christ, the Son of God. "I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you."

13) v21 Jesus says that he will manifest HIMSELF unto the believer. He will come upon them through the Spirit. He can't do that in bodily form as a human, he is speaking in a future time frame as in very soon.

14) v22 Judas asked HOW are you going to do this. (??) How are you going to manifest YOURSELF to us and not the world. Judas didn't ask 'WHO'. They knew who was going to come back to them in a spiritual form, but they weren't sure HOW He was going to do it.

15) v23 Jesus says that HE and the FATHER will come and make their abode with the believer. It is thru this one spirit (Ephesians 2:18) that they will dwell with us (John 14:17). That is TWO, not three or anyone else. TWO!

16) v26 The Comforter, aka the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name. Who's name will the Holy Spirit be sent in? Jesus Christ. What is it? A Holy Spirit. So it is the Holy Spirit of Christ or we could say, the Spirit of Christ. Not some other unknown third divine being.

the Comforter (Advocate) refer to 1 John 2:1

Comforter = Holy Ghost (Spirit) = Father will send in Christ's name

Comforter = Spirit that is holy (Holy Spirit) + in Christ's name

Comforter = Holy Spirit of Christ also known as the Spirit of Christ

He will teach you all things and remind you of all things

How is this so? We don't know. That is dealing with THE NATURE of this.

17) v28 I am going away, but will come unto you again. Jesus would leave them, go to heaven to be GLORIFIED (refer to that subject in this same book) and return to them in the Spirit.

18) v29 Jesus tells them this before it happens so when it does happen, they will realize what is going on and believe.

Also in Matthew 28:20, Jesus said "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Lets review the clues from Jesus in JOHN 14:

- I will come again, and receive you unto myself.
- I am the way, THE TRUTH, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.
- The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me.
- Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
- Ask any thing in my name, I will do it.
- The Spirit of truth – ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.
- I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
- Ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. (THE BIBLICAL TRINITY IF ONE REALLY EXISTED – FATHER-SON-YOU THE BELIEVER).
- And I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. (COME TO HIM IN SPIRIT FORM)
- How is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
- We will come unto him, and make our abode with him (FATHER AND SON COME AND DWELL WITH THE BELIEVER).
- Comforter, the Holy Ghost (Spirit), the Father will send in my name (CHRIST'S NAME –THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST)
- Ye have heard how I said unto you, I GO AWAY, and COME AGAIN UNTO YOU.

Jesus Speaks What He Hears, “not of myself”

Parallels Between Him and the Spirit of Truth

Jesus, the Son of Man, the Son of God

John 5:30 - I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

John 7:17-18 - If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. v18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

John 8:28 - Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

John 12:49-50 - For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. v50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

John 14:10 - Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

John 14:24 - He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

John 17:8 - For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

Revelation 1:1 - The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

The Spirit of Truth

(future tense of the Spirit of Christ that would come):

John 16:13 - Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

Jesus Speaking in First person and Third Person language (parable usage)

Jesus spoke and was quoted all through the New Testament. Sometimes he was very direct in His message, and other times he spoke in parables. It is often in parable-like language that he was using a grammatical type of speaking that today we call, “Third Person language” or “illeism.” This can be confirmed at the end of a three chapter delivery of Christ (John 14, 15 & 16) when he said in John 16:25 – “These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.” The disciples confirmed this and understood it as they replied in verse 29, “His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.”

First person examples:

It is obvious and easy to tell when Jesus is speaking in “First Person language”. It is a direct communication that leaves nothing to guess. He speaks of himself as “I”, “me”, “my”, “own”, “myself” in the following verses.

John 4:14 – “But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.”

John 5:24, 30-32,34,5:46-47 – “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. v30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. 31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. v32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.....

v34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. v46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. v47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?”

John 6:32-33 – “Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.”

John 6:35, 38-39, 47-48, 51, 54 – “And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. 39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. 48 I am that bread of life. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.”

John 8:12 – “Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.”

John 14:14, 18, 21 – “If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. 18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.”

Now lets see what happens when Jesus is speaking about himself in “Third Person language”. For some reason, people get tripped up on this. This is a grammatical type of language used more common than you would think. Jesus is speaking about himself as if he had “ANOTHER” of himself standing before him and whoever he is conducting his conversation with.

Third person examples:

Here Jesus is speaking about himself as “the Son”, the “Son of man”, “he”, “his”, “him”, “himself”, “Son of God” which in the context is “Third Person language”. Its interesting to note that 84 times in the New Testament, there is the Son of Man used. Seventy-nine times this is from Jesus talking about “himself” as another in the conversation. The other five times it is others discussing him. If you can understand this, the parable in John 14 thru 16 will come to life! Here are a few examples.

Matthew 16:27, 28 – “For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. 28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 25:31 – “When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:”

Mark 8:38 – “Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.” (“me”, “my” is in the first person; “Son of Man”, “he”, “his” is in third person language)

Mark 9:31 – “For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.”

Mark 14:41 – “And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.”

Mark 14:62 – “And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.”

Luke 5:24 – “But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.”

Luke 6:5 – “And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.”

Luke 18:8 – “I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?”

John 1:51 – “And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.”

John 3:13, 14 – “And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:”

John 3:16-18 – “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”

John 5:19-23 – “Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. 22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: 23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.”

John 5:25-27 – “Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; 27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.”

Combined First Person and Third Person verses:

John 6:40, 46, 53 – “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. v46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. v53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.” (“I”, first person; “he”, “him”, “his”, “the Son”, “Son of man” is third person)

John 8:28 – “Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.” (“I”, “me” and “myself” are first person; “Son of man” and “he” are third person)

John 14:16 – “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.” (“I” is first person; “another Comforter” and “he” is third person)

Back to third person language only:

John 14:17 – “Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.”

Now imagine if Jesus were to speak in First Person language in John 3:16-18, it would look very different. Compare this with the actual scripture on the previous page as it was written.

‘For God so loved the world, that he gave ME, the only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth ME should not perish, but have everlasting life. v17 For God sent not ME into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through ME might be saved. v18 He that believeth on ME is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of ME the only begotten Son of God.’

GLORIFIED !

After Jesus was resurrected, he needed to be Glorified (in heaven) and receive God's Spirit in full measure before he was able to send the Spirit to His disciples. That is why he had to go away first, before the Spirit of Truth, the Comforter, Christ's Spirit, the Spirit of Christ could come. The Father would send the Spirit, in Christ's name.

John 7:39 – “But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.”

John 11:4 - “When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.”

John 12:16, 23, 28 – “These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. ... v23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. ... v28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

John 13:31-32 – “Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. v32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.”

John 14:13 – “And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.”

Acts 3:13 – “The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.”

1 Peter 1:21 – “Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.”

2 Peter 1:16-17 – “For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

2 Thessalonians 1:10,12 – “When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe because our testimony among you was believed in that day. ... 12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.”

John 17:1-5 – “These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: v2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. v3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. v4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. v5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.”

John 14:22 – “Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?”

THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS NOT YET FULLY MANIFESTED FOR CHRIST HAD NOT YET BEEN GLORIFIED!

The fact that Christ should manifest Himself to them, and yet be invisible to the world, was a mystery to the disciples. They could not understand the words of Christ in their spiritual sense. They were thinking of the outward, visible manifestation. They could not take in the fact that they could have the presence of Christ with them, and yet He be unseen by the world. They did not understand the meaning of a spiritual manifestation. They didn't question who was coming to them, but what perplexed them was HOW was he going to do this.

"And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained." The Holy Spirit was not yet fully manifested; for Christ had not yet been glorified. The more abundant impartation of the Spirit did not take place till after Christ's ascension. Not until this was received could the disciples fulfill the commission to preach the gospel to the world. But the Spirit was now given for a special purpose. Before the disciples could fulfill their official duties in connection with the church, Christ breathed His Spirit upon them. He was committing to them a most sacred trust, and He desired to impress them with the fact that without the Holy Spirit this work could not be accomplished. The Holy Spirit is the breath of spiritual life in the soul. The impartation of the Spirit is the impartation of the life of Christ. It imbues the receiver with the attributes of Christ. Only those who are thus taught of God, those who possess the inward working of the Spirit, and in whose life the Christ-life is manifested, are to stand as representative men, to minister in behalf of the church.

The reason why the churches are weak and sickly and ready to die is that the enemy, Satan has brought influences of a discouraging nature to bear upon trembling souls. He has sought to shut Jesus from their view as the Comforter.

1 John 5:7-8

“For there are three that bear record in heaven the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.”

The witness of John who had a first account of the story and life of Yahshua gives us a testimony that many people don't believe. John's writings have been twisted more than any other writer of the Bible. This starts with academia of theology, handed to the pastors and then handed down to the attendees of assembly services.

We will start with what Jesus states in chapter 5 of John, then John 8, 10 and 18. All of these have clear cut clues that the Father and Son are closely intertwined, as Jesus is working to reveal the Father. In other Scriptures we see that Jesus speaks the words that he hears from His Father. [John 5:30, John 7:17-18, John 8:28, John 12:49-50, John 14:10, John 14:24, John 17:8, Revelation 1:1]

John 5:30-38 — “I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. v31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. v32 There is another that beareth witness of me; [God, as in the Father] and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. v33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. v34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. v35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. v36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. v37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. v38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.”

John 8:12-19, 27-30 — “Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. v13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. v14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. v15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. v16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. v17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. v18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. v19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also. v27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father. v28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. v29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. v30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.”

Here we see that the Father is bearing witness of His Son.

John 10:22-30 — “And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. v23 And Yahshua walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. v24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Messiah, tell us plainly. v25 Yahshua answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. v26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. v27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: v28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. v29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. v30 I and my Father are one.”

John 18:37 — “Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.”

1 John 1:1-3 — “That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; v2 For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us; v3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.”

Lets now review 1 John 5 as a chapter. Most people have not read this short 20 verse chapter. It's just too long for them. So, they take what the pastor gives them (verse 7 & 8) and believe what they are told, never questioning anything.

We will actually start with verse 9 through 20 and then come back around to the beginning of the chapter. The reason for this is to get a real foundation on the teaching of this chapter and so we won't miss vital points.

1 John 5:9-12 — “If we receive the witness of men, the witness of Elohim is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. v10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. v11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. v12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.”

1 John 5:13-20 — “These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. v14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: v15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. v16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. v17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. v18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. v19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. v20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, [Father] and we are in him that is true, [Father] even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.” [Father]

Note: *[added for clarification]

“Him that is true,” is God the Father. And eternal life originates from Him, and is then given to His Son for us to have if we chose to have it. But not if we have a false understanding of “Him” through Scripture. The context here so far, is that Yahweh has given us a record, a witness that He hath given to us about His Son. And through His Son is eternal life. If you don’t have the real begotten Son of God (not a metaphor as many theologians now are teaching), then there is no chance for eternal life. And not a son that started at the incarnation of Mary. But a son that was begotten in Heaven sometime in eternity. For God would have to have a Son to give in order to send him into the world to save the world.

Romans 8:3 — “For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin condemned sin in the flesh..”

John 3:17 — “For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.”

Getting back now to 1 John 5, pay close attention to this:

1 John 5:10 — “He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of His son.”

Here in verse 10, the title “God” is used and refers to the Father. “God” is never used in Scripture to refer to “the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.”

The record being shown here is that God gave His son. Not God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit gave THEIR son. God is the Father, and that is a part of the context of 1 John 5.

Now read 1 John 5, verses 1 through 5:

1 John 5:1-5 — “Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. v2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. v3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. v4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. v5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?”

Something of great significance to ponder on is found in the next verse, 1 John 5:6:

“This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.”

The human body is made up of water and blood. But lets look at who this is identifying in a special way when it says “he that came by water and blood.” This is part of the testimony or record. The water represents Jesus’ baptism. And at the time, God anointed Jesus with His Spirit. (Matthew 3:16 “...the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.”

The blood represents the crucifixion, death and sacrifice that Jesus made for our sins. Hopefully so far, we have see that the Father bears record or a witness of His Son, over and over. So when it comes to the Spirit mentioned in verse 6, why would it be any different?

‘And it is the Father that beareth witness, because the Father is truth.’

Who is this Spirit?? The Bible tells us plainly that God is a Spirit.
God is also truth!

John 4:23-24 – “But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. v24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.”

Nowhere else in the Scripture would we come up with the idea that the Spirit could be anyone else without adding to the Scripture. Unless we were to mystify God and add additional personality or personhood to his Majesty. Unfortunately, people are taught to do this to prop up a mystery ghost. And then it takes a whole lot of effort to unravel the lies.

God is Holy, His existence is referred to as Holy — “I AM HOLY” — Joshua 24:19, Leviticus 11:44, 45, 19:2, 21:8, 21:22, 1 Samuel 2:2, 6:20, 1 Chronicles 29:16, Psalm 71:22, 78:41, 99:5, 99:9, 106:47, Isaiah 5:16, 29:23, 30:15, 43:3, 48:17, 52:10, 54:5, 55:5, 60:9, Jeremiah 60:9, 51:5, Ezekiel 20:39, 36:22, 39:25, Hosea 11:9, Habakkuk 1:12, 3:3, Ephesians 4:30, Revelation 4:8.

What God is, is a Holy Spirit! It is His Spirit, the Spirit of God. That is why the sin against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, for it is a sin against God Himself, as in the Father! The one living and true God. No one else.

Romans 8:16 — “The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.”

This “Spirit” in Romans 8 is expounded upon in earlier verses in the chapter. The context of “the Spirit” is the Father’s Spirit, the Spirit of God. And it is the same “Spirit” found in verse 26 “...the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.” People are hand fed this one verse in verse 26 and are led to believe in a mystery ghost. But the answer to all of this is found earlier in the same chapter.

Romans 8:9-11, 14-17 — “You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. v10 But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. v11 If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, [Father] he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. v14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. v15 For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” v16 The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, v17 and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.”

So why is this so hard to understand? Because we have serpent theology being whispered in our ears in the very church buildings that we go to for trust, wisdom, learning and understanding. So far from what we have read and seen, it is the Father bearing witness of His Son. The Son is a reflection of the Father, his express image. There is no one else involved. Why would that change all of a sudden? It doesn't.

When we think about the Centurion piercing the side of the Christ as he was dying on the cross: Water and blood spilled out of Christ upon the spearing. The Spirit (his breath, mind and personality) had left its life in the body of the Son of Man, who was also the Son of God.

John 19:34-37 — “But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. v35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. v36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. v37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.”

Now, lets read verses 7 through 8. You should have a completely different outlook on these verses by examining the whole chapter more fully. The entire chapter is about witnessing that Jesus is truly the Son of God. And the Father bears that as a witness.

SIX TIMES in this one chapter alone we are told that Jesus is the Son of God.

So by the time we come to the troubled verses of 7 and 8, we will now see it in the light that the Scripture gives us, not in the dribble of learned men from the Universities. While there is deep historical record of an issue with the authenticity of verses of 7 and 8, as far as their completeness as they were printed in the King James Bible, we will first address it as if they are authentic and nothing is wrong.

1 John 5:7 - “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

This verse does NOT say that these three are one God. The title “God” is missing completely. It is NOT teaching us that God is a community of three persons, or that God is a Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Many try and approach this verse as support for a trinity doctrine. But if you look up the definition of the word trinity, that word by itself only represents a number; the number of “three.” If you try and apply it to this Scripture, then three what? The chapter doesn’t tell us. It doesn’t apply here. And the chapter doesn’t support a “trinity doctrine” either. Not even close. Because it is void of the identity of a God the Father, god the son, god the holy spirit. It doesn’t say there are three co-equal, co-eternal beings, NO!

There are three that bear record in heaven. They are one in the record that they bear. In other testimony or references we have seen it referred to as bearing witness. So what is the record? God is, as in the Father! The Record:

The Father “bears record” that God the Father gave his Son and gave us eternal life which is in his Son.

The Word “bears record” that God the Father gave his Son and gave us eternal life which is in his Son.

The Holy Ghost “bears record” that God the Father gave his Son and gave us eternal life which is in his Son.

The Father is the Supreme being of the universe He is the source of all things, and the original “word.” If we look up the Greek for the “word” in this Scripture, Strong’s Concordance G3056 states:

logos: a word (as embodying an idea), a statement, a speech

Original Word: λόγος, ου, ό Part of Speech: Noun, Masculine

Transliteration: logos Phonetic Spelling: (log'-os)

Definition: a word (as embodying an idea), a statement, a speech

Usage: a word, speech, divine utterance, analogy.

It is through the trinitarian world of academia that the “word” in John 1:1 is commonly used to express the Logos, or Jesus. But in the context of this Passage, when understanding all else that has taken place in the witness and record that is being given, what the Greek says and how it is interpreted needs to be considered. Because making it out to be Jesus is just completely wrong. Additionally Strong’s says:

3056 lógos (from 3004 / *légo, “speaking to a conclusion”) – a word, being the expression of a thought; a saying. 3056 / *logos (“word”) is preeminently used of Christ (Jn 1:1), expressing the thoughts of the Father through the Spirit.

[3056 (lógos) is a common term (used 330 times in the NT) with regards to a person sharing a message (discourse, “communication-speech”). 3056 (lógos) is a broad term meaning “reasoning expressed by words.”]

And Thayer’s Greek Lexicon does not differ in this.

λόγος, λόγου, ό (λέγω) (from Homer down), the Sept. especially for דְּבַר, also for אָמַר and מִלָּה; properly, a collecting, collection (see λέγω) — and that, as well of those things which are put together in thought, as of those which, having been thought i. e. gathered together in the mind, are expressed in words. Accordingly, a twofold use of the term is to be distinguished: one which relates to speaking, and one which relates to thinking.

So “the word” here it is the physical commands or voice of God. In other words, His speech, or even His message. And this is recognized at the baptism of Christ when we read in Matthew 3:17, “And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” How else could God bear record other than by His mouth (voice) and Spirit (omnipresence) being sent.

In the first book of Genesis, God was speaking throughout His creation. “God said” can be found ten times, and “God called” can be found three times. Both of these words deal with the mouth, or verbalization of the action. The speech of God from his mouth is creating the action of creation. And this lines up with John 1:1.

I know the majority that read this is going to have a hard time with this, but you have a major stumbling block with 1 John 5:7-8. It is because you have chosen to believe this lie as for perhaps all your Christian life. There are a number of Bible verses that if you pick them out by themselves, you can make them say just about one of many things. That is very dishonest. This writer is not hear to pick on you, but to reveal the lie and show the truth. Truth can hurt our feelings at times when we realize we have been wrong. But let’s face it, error will flat out kill you in the end. If you were doing something wrong and didn’t realize it, wouldn’t you want a friend to reveal it and to show you the right path or right way in doing something rather than to leave you alone on a destructive path?

Getting back to our three that bear record, all three bear record in verse 7 that “God” is a Father, not a Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

1 John 5 is telling us that God is a Father alone. And that God gave his Son. Verse 7 is all about the Father. And when we understand verse 8, it is all about the Son of God. Read and study all of this until this sinks in. A third of something or someone else does not fit the chapter or topic at all. Look at the totality of everything. Everything is about the Father and the Son.

In verse 8, it says that, “And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.”

It would have been better if this verse was written or printed as “on earth.” Because Christ was “on earth.” All through the life of Christ while he was on earth, we have the testimony that he gave. If you read the Scripture as it is plainly laid out without having colored lenses to look thru, you will see the witness of Jesus in these verses that these three testimonies agree as one:

Water = the baptism of Jesus; God anointed Jesus with His Spirit
Blood = the crucifixion, death, sacrifice of Jesus for our sins
Spirit = the resurrection of Jesus, the new life, eternal life

They agree as one, as they are in harmony with everything that God has laid out for us, which is “the plan of salvation,” through His Son, Jesus Christ.

It is important to understand Christ’s identity as the Son of God. That is what John is telling us and reinforcing over and over. But he is also telling us the identity of God. Since Christ is the Son of God, this would identify God as our Father. And that is who God is here in this context in all of these passages. These three bear record that our God is a Father. Again, these verses cannot be repeated enough until it sinks into us.

1 John 5:11-13 – “And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. v12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. v13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.”

And who is 1 John 5 all about?

1 John 1:3 – “That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.”

John was a Jew and had first hand account of who Jesus was. Jews ARE NOT Trinitarians. And John never taught trinitarianism! The verse above reinforces that there is a specific relationship and it involves a Father and a Son. Is this role playing? No, this is real and literal. It says that our fellowship is with the Father and the Son. No one else is mentioned here. Just two, not three.

1 John 4:9 – “In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.”

This is how God manifested his love. God is love. He did this by giving up his only begotten Son. That is how he has shown us his love. By receiving God’s love, it draws us to make a change to our character. Love is what draws us to repentance. By holding onto his love, we become changed into the image of him.

1 John 4:14-15 – “And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. v15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.”

Confession of Jesus being the Son of God is important. Also refer to the following scripture texts as God the Father bore witness of his Son: Matt. 3:17, 17:5 and Mark 1:11, 9:7.

Matthew 3:17 – “And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 17:5 – “While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.”

Mark 1:11 – “And there came a voice from heaven, [saying], Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

Mark 9:7 – “And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.”

1 John 5:1 – “Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.”

So Christ is born of him, begotten. The Father is the begetter, Christ is begotten of Him. This theme is what we find summarized in John’s gospel, in John 20:31.

John 20:31 – “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

This is important to our salvation. Our eternal life. This is not a side issue. The question comes down to, “Is God three co-eternal, co-equal beings?”

OR.....

Is God a loving Father who begat a Son, who had to sacrifice his Son in order to save us? Yes. Did God the Father give Christ equality? Yes. Or did this Son possess it of himself, totally on his own? No.

John 5:26 – “For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.”

Is this an act performed by 3 co-eternal beings? No. Is this a show, a theatrical performance? No. Is God really a Father, or is he just pretending to be a Father? Is this role-playing like some theologians have claimed in the past? In recent times we have theologians publicly making statements that they don’t believe the Bible to be literal. They don’t believe that the Father and Son is a literal relationship even thou it is stated hundreds of times in the Bible. They say the Son of God is to be taken metaphorically or as a role that Jesus takes on. The definition of Jesus Christ taking on a role and not the literal Son of the Father is actually anti-Christ according to the Bible.

1 John 2:22-24 - “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. v23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. v24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.”

It is true that Christ existed in eternity. But the bible says that he “came out from God”, “proceeded forth and came from God”, “came out from thee”, “whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting”, “set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was”, I was brought forth”. (John 8:42, 16:27, 17:8, Micah 5:2, Prov. 8:23-24)

Did the Father really have a literal Son? Yes. Can you be drawn to him if you cannot see the manifestation of the Father’s love? No. If we don’t believe, we make him a liar if we don’t believe that he gave his literal Son.

John 17:3 – “And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.”

Jesus spoke these words to his Father. And it was the Father that sent Jesus Christ to us.

To know the only true God is the only way that man can be elevated through the knowledge of God. The knowledge of God is the most important thing in making us like God in character. This is life eternal. Yet so many people are told by their pastors or leaders that God is a mystery. This leads only to confusion and delusion.

The most reputable authorities agree that part of 1 John 5:7-8 was most certainly added to the Bible during the period known as the “Dark Ages”. And we have plenty of comments about that in Study Bibles and historical statements.

Some people would object strongly to the very suggestion that errors may have crept into the text of the Bible in any way whatsoever.

While we have seen that there is true support for the verses of 7 and 8 in 1 John 5 can be made when a real study of John’s writings are done. But now we will take a look at the flip side of this and address some troubling history pertaining to our key text topic. Let the following explain accordingly, as you will see there is authentic text that was inspired by the Spirit of Yahweh to John. And then there was a spirit from another that inspired translators. The text in (Brackets) is text that was not found in the original manuscripts, but later added.

v7 For there are three that bear record (in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one. v8 And there are three that bear witness in earth), the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three agree in one.”

So the original text would read in the King James: “For there are three that bear record, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three agree in one.”

As you can see, this matches up well with all the other versions of Bibles whose translators chose not to add the controversial text. They knew the historical addition to the text and was on guard not to use it. Other Bible versions confirm EXACTLY what is being shown and illustrated here. Compare them to the King James.

The Comma Johanneum, also known as the Comma Johannine, is a textual variant in regards to 1 John 5:7-8. The word comma simply means “short clause,” and Johanneum means “pertaining to John.” Again, without the “comma,” 1 John 5:7-8 reads, “For there are three that bear record, the spirit, the water and the blood; and these three agree in one.”

With the “comma,” 1 John 5:7-8 reads, “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.”

As many do today teaching this Comma Johanneum, reading this by itself you could make up all kinds of variations of doctrine. But as we have read previously, looking at the totality of the witness of Christ, and the record that His Father gave, this is not teaching anything to do with a God the Father, god the son, god the holy spirit as found in Trinity doctrines.

None of the oldest Greek manuscripts of 1 John contain the comma, and none of the very early church fathers include it when quoting or referencing 1 John 5:7-8. The presence of the Comma Johanneum in Greek manuscripts is actually quite rare until the 15th century A.D. Imagine that, the 15th century. That is well over a thousand years later after Christ was on earth and the writings of the New Testament were recorded by Paul, Luke, Matthew, Mark and John. It is primarily found in Latin manuscripts. While some of the Latin manuscripts containing the Comma Johanneum appear to be ancient, the Comma Johanneum did not appear in the original Latin Vulgate written by Jerome.

In the 16th century, when Desiderius Erasmus was compiling what became known as the Textus Receptus, he did not include the Comma Johanneum in the 1st or 2nd editions. Due to intense pressure from the Catholic Church and others who wanted it included because of its support for trinitarianism, Erasmus included the Comma Johanneum in later editions of the Textus Receptus. His decision resulted in the Comma Johanneum being included in the King James Version of the Bible and later in the New King James Version. None of the modern Greek texts (UBS 4, Nestle-Aland 27, Majority Text) contain the Comma Johanneum. Of all the modern English translations, only the New King James Version and Modern English Version include the Comma Johanneum.

While it would be convenient for there to be an explicit statement confirming some kind of a Trinity doctrine in the Bible, but the Comma Johanneum was not originally part of 1 John. Some scribe, either intentionally or accidentally added it to a Latin manuscript, and then that addition was copied thousands upon thousands of times. Latin manuscripts came way after the original Greek writings of the New Testament. This eventually resulted in the Comma Johanneum appearing in the vast majority of Latin manuscripts. Whatever the scribe's motives, whether intentionally or by accident, it is absolutely wrong to add to God's Word. The Comma Johanneum is not a God-breathed statement nor a writing from the apostle John, and does not belong in the Bible. The doctrine of the Trinity is taught and implied from using human construction and man made additions to many other biblical passages. If God thought an explicit mention of Him being apart of a trinity god was necessary, He Himself would have made sure it was very clear in His Word, and with the weight of evidence.

"The textual evidence is against 1 John 5:7," explains Dr. Neil Lightfoot, a New Testament professor. "Of all the Greek manuscripts, only two contain it. These two manuscripts are of very late dates, one from the fourteenth or fifteenth century and the other from the sixteenth century. Two other manuscripts have this verse written in the margin. All four manuscripts show that this verse was apparently translated from a late form of the Latin Vulgate," - How We Got the Bible, 2003, pp. 100-101.

Theology professors Anthony and Richard Hanson, in their book Reasonable Belief: A Survey of the Christian Faith, explain the unwarranted addition to the text this way: "It was added by some enterprising person or persons in the ancient Church who felt that the New Testament was sadly deficient in direct witness to the kind of doctrine of the Trinity which he favoured and who determined to remedy that defect ... It is a waste of time to attempt to read Trinitarian doctrine directly off the pages of the New Testament." (1980, p. 171).

Peake's Commentary on the Bible is very incisive in its comments as well: "The famous interpolation after 'three witnesses' is not printed in RSV and rightly [so] No respectable Greek [manuscript] contains it. Appearing first in a late 4th century Latin text, it entered the Vulgate [the 5th-century Latin version, which became the common medieval translation] and finally NT [New Testament] of Erasmus [who produced newly collated Greek texts and a new Latin version in the 16th century].”

(p. 1038).

The Expositor’s Bible Commentary also dismisses the King James and New King James Versions’ additions in 1 John 5:7-8 as “obviously a late gloss with no merit.” - Glenn Barker, Vol. 12, 1981, p. 353.

The Big Book of Bible Difficulties tells us: “This verse has virtually no support among the early Greek manuscripts . . . Its appearance in late Greek manuscripts is based on the fact that Erasmus was placed under ecclesiastical pressure to include it in his Greek NT of 1522, having omitted it in his two earlier editions of 1516 and 1519 because he could not find any Greek manuscripts which contained it.” - Norman Geisler and Thomas Howe, 2008, pp. 540-541.

As you can see, 1 John 5 has NOTHING to do with God being a Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The word Trinity did not come into common use as a religious term until after the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D., several centuries after the last books of the New Testament were complete. It is simply NOT a Biblical concept.

Surely hellfire awaits those who take one verse, or even a few from the Bible and manipulate it for use of a false doctrine brought in by man’s fables, placed on the mind of the unsuspecting soul who just wants to worship God honestly in Spirit and in Truth. But the result is that they are led astray by Satan’s deceptions, falling for a strange god.

Here are just a few references to touch lightly on the history of the most pointed doctrine within all of Christendom, and that is on the Trinity.

“To briefly summarize what was pertinent, we start with mention of the famous Greek philosopher Plato (ca. 429-347 B.C.). He believed in a divine triad of “God, the ideas, [and] the World-Spirit,” though he “nowhere explained or harmonized this triad.” - Charles Bigg, Christian Platonists of Alexandria, 1886, p. 249.

As Bible scholars John McClintock and James Strong explain: “Towards the end of the 1st century, and during the 2d, many learned men came over both from Judaism and paganism to Christianity. These brought with them into the Christian schools of theology their Platonic ideas and phraseology.” - Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature, 1891, Vol. 10, “Trinity,” p. 553.

“The Alexandria catechetical school, which revered Clement of Alexandria and Origen, the greatest theologian of the Greek Church, as its heads, applied the allegorical method to the explanation of Scripture. Its thought was influenced by Plato: its strong point was [pagan] theological spec-ulations. Athanasius and the three Cappadocians [the men whose Trinitarian views were adopted by the Catholic Church at the Councils of Nicaea and Constantinople] had been included among its members.” - Hubert Jedin, Ecumenical Councils of the Catholic Church: an Historical Outline, 1960, p. 28.

“The doctrines of the Logos [i.e., the “Word,” a designation for Christ in John 1] and the Trinity received their shape from Greek Fathers, who . . . were much influenced, directly or indirectly, by the Platonic philosophy . . . That errors and corruptions crept into the Church from this source can not be denied.” - The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, Samuel Macauley Jackson, editor, 1911, Vol. 9, p. 91).

The preface to historian Edward Gibbons' History of Christianity sums up the Greek influence on the adoption of the Trinity doctrine by stating: “If Paganism was conquered by Christianity, it is equally true that Christianity was corrupted by Paganism. The pure Deism [basic religion, in this context] of the first Christians ... was changed, by the Church of Rome, into the incomprehensible dogma of the trinity. Many of the pagan tenets, invented by the Egyptians and idealized by Plato, were retained as being worthy of belief.” (1883, p. xvi). (See “How Ancient Trinitarian Gods Influenced Adoption of the Trinity.”)

Whether we hold to what has been printed in modern Bibles or hold onto that certain words were added, either way, we have shown that 1 John 5 has NOTHING to do with support for a supposed trinity doctrine with Elohim being a Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 13:14

Many will utilize this verse to substantiate their belief that God is made up of three persons. But as it is obviously shown, God is made up of only one person in this verse.

“The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen”

After all, Paul has already given us a good definition of the identity that God is the one God of the Bible and not made up of two or three.

1 Corinthians 8:6 - But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

Previously Paul states in verses 4 and 5 the following:

“As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. v5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)”

So we have one REAL God and one REAL Lord according to Paul. But what about the Holy Spirit? Jesus has already given us his witness that it is the Spirit of the Father. In the pages that follow you will see that the Holy Spirit is not an additional person or being.

Matthew 10:20 - For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

Luke 11:13 - If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

John 15:26 - But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

John 4:24 - God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

The text above in 2 Corinthians 13:14 does not say communion “with” the Holy Ghost, but instead says “the communion of the Holy Ghost.” It is through the Holy Ghost or Spirit that we can have the grace and the love of Christ and His Father.

And in support of Jesus Christ and of God the Father, there are at least 19 other verses that support this in comparison to just this one verse (2 Corinthians 13:14) that is used by many while ignoring the other 19 verses. Why not try and reason this out? Where is the weight of evidence?

In complete unison, we have greetings from Paul, James, Peter and John, 19 times!

Romans 1:7 - To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:3 - Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:2 - Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:3 - Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

Ephesians 1:2 - Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:1-2 - Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Colossians 1:2 - To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thess. 1:1 - Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thess. 1:2 - Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Timothy 1:1-2 - Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:2 - Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Titus 1:1-2 - Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

Titus 1:4 - To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Philemon 1:3 - Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

James 1:1 - James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

1 Peter 1:2 - Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

2 Peter 1:2 - Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord.

1 John 1:3 - That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

2 John 1:3 - Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

There is a difference between having “fellowship of” and “fellowship with” someone or something. John has explained to us who we are to have fellowship with in 1 John 1:3:

“That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.”

So we are to have the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and be partakers of the Holy Spirit of God. While there is only one God mentioned in 2 Corinthians 13:14, there are only two actual persons mentioned, the Father and the Son. There is no Trinity doctrine to be found here.

Matthew 3:16-17

“And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

Here we have one of the few times witnessed that God is speaking directly, and was being quoted in Scripture. Who was present at the time of Jesus' baptism? THREE BEINGS! But, let's look closer. It's maybe not what you have been typically taught in the churches.

1) Jesus 2) God 3) John who baptized

God (the Father) was present thru his own Spirit (Spirit OF God) and then He spoke (VOICE from heaven). Making this into another 'being' called God the Holy Spirit is like coming up with another 'being' called God the Voice. The Spirit and Voice belong to the one and only true and living God. Not a God divisible by three. Anything else makes the testimony a lie.

God the Father was there with His presence, so in a sense he was seen. And he was there with His voice, because He was heard. So with eyes and ears, there was a testimony.

2 Peter 1:16-18 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. v17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. v18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

This is the testimony of what took place in Matthew, but recorded by Peter. It matches what took place. Is the Holy Spirit another being or is it the Glory of God? It says Jesus Christ received from His Father, “honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” The Father IS THE EXCELLENT GLORY.

Now to address “THE DOVE” that everyone seems to want to make into something larger than it is. Lets review a few verses. Pay attention closely without preconceived ideas that you have been told from the pulpit.

Matthew 3:16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him.

Mark 1:10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him.

Luke 3:21,22 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

John 1:32 And John bare record, saying, I saw THE SPIRIT descending from heaven like a dove, and IT ABODE UPON HIM.

A few facts we learn from these accounts are:

- a. It is the Spirit of God. Not someone or anything else.
- b. Its descent was like a dove. How does a dove descend to the earth? Slow and fluttery. This WAS NOT AN ACTUAL DOVE.
- c. Its shape was like a dove. IT WAS NOT A DOVE.
- d. It is called an "IT" by John

Do these facts support the conclusion that the Holy Spirit is a different person separate to God? No. John certainly would not have used "it" to refer to a divine being. The Holy Spirit is actually used in possessive language to note who it's owner is, which is God the Father (it is the "Spirit OF God". Not "God the Spirit" or "God the Holy Spirit").

How does one conclude the Holy Spirit is another being from the beams of glory that came from the Father and rested on His Son in the form of a dove? Are the beams of God's glory an individual? No. Lets take a look at what is recorded in John 17 between a pray from Christ to his Father. You can see this glory is between the Father and the Son.

v1 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee: v2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him. v3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. v4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. v5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

Prayer for the Disciples

v6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. v7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. v8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. v9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. v10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. v11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. v12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. v13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. v14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. v15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. v16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. v17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. v18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. v19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Prayer for all Believers

v20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; v21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. v22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: v23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. v24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. v25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me. v26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

We can see from this text that Jesus seeks to and has given his glory that came from the Father, that he and his people might be one in God, just as he and his Father are one. That is one in unity, purpose, spirit and character.

Acts 5:3-4

The Trinity doctrine teaches the Father is God, Jesus is God and the Holy Spirit is God and yet there are not three gods but one God. So when the challenge first arose to prove the Holy Spirit is God (separately), people really stretch to find something in Scripture to support their erroneous beliefs. Acts 5:3-4 is the ONLY passage that could be found to make such a false argument.

Acts 5:3-4 — “But Peter said, Ananias, why has Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land? v4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why have you conceived this thing in thine heart? you have not lied unto men, but unto God.”

Since verse 3 says Ananias lied to the Holy Spirit and verse four says he had not lied to man but to God, it is claimed that the Holy Spirit is God. But this is Eisegesis and what I call red fire engine logic. That is, fire engines are red, my car is red, therefore my car is a fire engine! Eisegesis is the process of misinterpreting a text or portion of text in such a way that it introduces one's own presuppositions, agendas, and or biases into and onto the text.

People are not shown or taught what is found in Acts 5:9. This is the deal breaker. It identifies who or what is this Holy Spirit.

Verse 9: “Peter asked “How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord?”

Some translations lay this out very much in black and white by saying, “the Lord’s Spirit,” or “The Spirit of the LORD JEHOVAH.”

Lying to the Spirit of the Lord is to lie to God Himself because it is His Spirit. My Spirit belongs to me in the same way as Paul reveals below. So if you lie to my spirit you have lied to me, not someone else! God's Spirit revealed to Peter that Ananias had lied and so he had not lied to man but to God, as it was God Himself through His spirit that revealed the lie.

As Paul said, “no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.” — 1 Corinthians 2:11

Ananias lied to God's Spirit which was working within Peter, which is the same as lying to the Almighty God Himself as it is His Spirit.

Parallel examples

What does the spirit of man refer to? When we talk about the spirit of man in relation to man, and the Spirit of God in relation to God, what do we mean by this terminology? Let's go to scripture to see what it has to say.

Spirit of Man was troubled

Daniel 2:1 – “And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.”

Heart

Ezekiel 36:26 – “A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you....”

Broken heart = Contrite spirit

Clean heart = right spirit

Broken spirit = broken and contrite heart

Life / breath

Job 27:3 – “All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils.”

Spirit = Mind, Life, Breath, Heart

How does the Bible explain God's Spirit?

Mind

Isaiah 40:13 – “Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?”

Paul quoted this verse, he changed a word in it. That is how he understood it.

Romans 11:34 – “For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?”

1 Corinthians 2:16 – “For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.”

Life

Romans 8:10 – “And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.”

Spirit of the Lord = mind of the Lord = Life of the Lord

The Spirit of the Lord is life to you

Genesis 2:7 – “And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.”

Revelation 11:11 – “And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet....”

If the spirit of man is none other than his own presence or person, then can we say that the spirit of God is His own presence? Of course we can.

Presence

Psalms 139:7 - “Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence?”

Psalms 51:11 - “Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.”

- The Spirit of God is the person, the presence of God Himself.
- The Spirit of the Lord is the presence, is the life, the mind of, it is the person of God Himself.

It doesn't exist because that name or being doesn't exist. Yes, God is a Spirit and God is Holy, but that is NOT His identity. If you believe what isn't in the Bible, yet think you will get to find out when you get to Heaven, it is suggested that you comb through this book carefully, especially these last two pages.

2. 1 Timothy 1:16-17 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. [Son] 17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. [Father]
3. 1 Timothy 4:5-6 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. [Father] 6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. [Son]
4. 1 Timothy 6:14-17 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: [Son] 15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; [Father] 16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. [Father] 17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; [Father]

2 Timothy

1. 2 Timothy 2:7-10 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. [Son] 8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: [Son] 9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. [Father] 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. [Son]

Philemon

1. Philemon 1:4-5 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, [Father] 5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints; [Son]

Hebrews

- Hebrews 1:1-14 God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, [Father] 2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; [Father & Son] 3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; [Father & Son] 4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. [Son] 5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? [Father & Son] 6 And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. 7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. 8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. [Father & Son] 9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. [Father & Son] 10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: [Father or Son] 11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; 12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. 13 [Father & Son] But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?
- Hebrews 2:3-4 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; [Son] 4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will? [Father, His own Spirit]
- Hebrews 3:1-2 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; [Son] 2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. [Father]
- Hebrews 5:5-10 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. [Father & Son] 6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. [Son] 7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; [Father & Son] 8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; [Son] 9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; [Son] 10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec. [Father & Son]
- Hebrews 13:7-8 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. [Father] 8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. [Son]

1 Peter

- 1 Peter 2:3-4 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. [Son] 4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, [Father]
- 1 Peter 4:1-2 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; [Son] 2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. [Father]

- 1 John 3:20-24 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. [Father] 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. [Father] 22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 [Father] And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. [Father & Son] 24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. [Father & Son, by Their Spirit]
- 1 John 4:9-16 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. [Father & Son] 10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. [Father & Son] 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. [Father] 12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. [Father] 13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. [Father, His Spirit] 14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. [Father & Son] 15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. [Father & Son] 16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. [Father]
- 1 John 5:9-21 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. [Father & Son] 10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. [Father & Son] 11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. [Father & Son] 12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. [Father & Son] 13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. [Father & Son] 14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: [Father] 15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. [Father] 16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. 17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. 18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. [Father] 19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. [Father] 20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. [Father & Son] 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

Jude

- Jude 1:24-25 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, [Son] 25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. [Father]

Revelation

1. Revelation 1:1-9 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: [Father & Son] 2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. [Father & Son] 3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. 4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; [Father, His Spirit] 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, [Son] 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. [Father & Son] 7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. [Son] 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. [Father] 9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. [Father & Son]
2. Revelation 5:6-14 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. [Father & Son] 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. [Father & Son] 8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. [Son] 9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; [Father & Son] 10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. [Father & Son] 11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; 12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. [Son] 13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever. [Father & Son] 14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever. [Father]
3. Revelation 7:9-17 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; [Son] 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. [Father & Son] 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, [Father] 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. [Father] 13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? 14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. [Son] 15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. [Father] 16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. 17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. [Father & Son]

4. Revelation 22:1-7 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. [Father & Son] 2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: [Father & Son] 4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. [Father] 5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. [Father] 6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. [Father] 7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. [Son]
5. Revelation 22:12-21 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. [Son] 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. [Father] 14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. [Son] 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. 18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: [Father] 19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. [Father] 20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. [Son] 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. [Son]

Closing thoughts

God has a church. It is not the great cathedral, neither is it the national establishment, neither is it the various denominations; it is the people who love God and keep His commandments. “Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them.” Where Christ is, even among the humble few, this is Christ’s church, for the presence of the High and Holy One who inhabiteth eternity can alone constitute a church. Where two or three are present who love and obey the commandments of God, Jesus there presides, let it be the desolate place of the earth, in the wilderness, in the city, (or) enclosed in prison walls.

We are not saved as a sect; no denominational name has any virtue to bring us into favor with God. We are saved individually as believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. And “by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God.” We may have our names recorded on the books of the most spiritual of the churches, and yet we may not belong to Christ, and our names may not be written on the Lamb’s book of life. Christ said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” If we could reach heaven through our own merits and efforts, then Christ need not have come to the world, to endure suffering, reproach, and shame, to be subjected to humiliation, mockery, insult, and death. He made an infinite sacrifice, because it was the only way whereby man could be saved. Those who believe in Christ will reveal it in their life and character. By beholding Christ they will be changed into his image, and Christ will be represented to the world by his followers. If we are branches of the True Vine, precious clusters of rich fruit will appear in the life as the natural result. Practical faith in Christ will result in the doing of his words; the believer in Jesus will work the works of God. “We are laborers together with God.” “Without me,” says Christ, “ye can do nothing.” In and through the grace of Christ we can do all things.”

Proverbs 30:5-6

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.
